I am a cybersecurity professional with a strong foundation in cybersecurity, ethical hacking, digital forensics, and network security. I hold the Certified Ethical Hacker (CEH) and Google Cybersecurity Professional Certificate. I am committed to continuously developing my technical skills through hands-on learning and practical projects, with the goal of building a successful career in cybersecurity and contributing to the protection of digital systems and information.